

Crivitz Youth, Inc. Community Center (CYCC) is committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all members and guests. Guests are expected to always act appropriately when in our facilities or participating in our programs. Inappropriate behavior deemed to conflict with the welfare and safety of guests and staff is strictly prohibited on CYI properties and could result in loss of Wellness Center privileges and subsequently, your membership. CYI retains the right to suspend or cancel service and/or impose fines on any guest for any behavior and/or destruction of property in violation of current or subsequently issued policies.

Each patron is expected to do the following:

Treat others the way you would want to be treated, demonstrate courtesy even when others do not.

Behave in a responsible manner, always exercising self-discipline.

Dress in an appropriate and respectful manner, in accordance with the CYCC dress code.

Respect the rights and privileges of other patrons and Community Center staff.

Respect the property of others, including CYI property, equipment and facilities.

Make informed decisions regarding technology etiquette and proper use of publications and confidential material.

Cooperate with/assist the Community Center staff in maintaining safety, order and discipline.

Unacceptable behaviors include the following:

Being involved in an instance of any form of disrespect to the Community Center staff.

Failure to conform to CYI Community Center Policies.

Use of profanity, vulgar language or obscene gestures.

Defacing/damaging/thieving CYI property or the property of others.

Engaging in inappropriate physical or verbal contact.

Running (in the lobby areas/pool), pushing, shoving, littering or throwing objects at another member/guest (which are not part of a supervised activity).

Producing loud, rude or unnecessary noises.

Involvement with drugs, alcohol or weapons.

Persons behaving in unacceptable manners listed above may face the following discipline options: Conference with staff and person involved in misbehavior. Suspension from the Wellness Center and pool for any appropriate period of time. Conference with staff and parent/legal guardian. If the parent/legal guardian refuses to attend the conference, or the person remains disruptive, the person may be restricted from the entire Community Center. Suspension or possible expulsion from the Community Center.

I have read, understand and agree to follow the CYI Community Center Code of Conduct for unsupervised use of the Wellness Center and Pool facilities.
